The PanaSure Certified Dealer shall provide to Customer all repair services, and parts necessary for the Panasonic Plain Paper Copier Equipment listed below to operate in good working order. It is understood that only genuine Panasonic supplies will be used in the Copier Equipment and that said supplies will be purchased from the Dealer. It is further understood that only Panasonic parts will be utilized, and that service will be performed by Panasonic factory trained technicians who are employees of the Dealer.

In the unlikely event that any of the Copier Equipment listed below should become unserviceable, the Customer is entitled to receive a like replacement product from the Dealer. Each copier, accessory, or device having its own separate serial number shall be considered a distinct product. The exact terms of replacement vary by copier model and include prorated depreciation schedules which are based upon a specific number of copies or 36 months, whichever occurs first.

This agreement shall be effective on the date of original installation of the Copier Equipment (or the date of expiration of the Customer's current PanaSure Agreement, if applicable) and shall terminate on (i) the date the Copier Equipment has made the number of copies specified by your maintenance agreement, or (ii) 36 months after the effective date, whichever occurs first.
